

Congressional Directory, 2009-2010

The 2009-2010 (111th Congress) edition of the Congressional Directory is now available on Fsys at and GPO Access.

The Congressional Directory is the official directory of the U.S. Congress, prepared by the Joint Committee on Printing (JCP), and it is made available during the first session of each new Congress. It presents:

- * Short biographies of each member of the Senate and House, listed by state or district.
- * Committee memberships, terms of service, administrative assistants and/or secretaries, and room and telephone numbers for members of Congress.
- * Lists of officials of the courts, military establishments, and other Federal departments and agencies, including D.C. government officials, governors of states and territories, foreign diplomats, and members of the press, radio, and television galleries.

In addition to being available on FDsys and GPO Access, the Congressional Directory is also available for purchase through the U.S. Government Online Bookstore in paperbound or hardcover format.

The Congressional Directory also will be distributed through the Federal Depository Library Program in hardcover format, under:
